Update on Business Transaction and Name Change to Intrepid Metals Corp.

As previously announced, the Company has received conditional approval for its change of business transaction and the acquisition of the Tombstone South Property. The Company has now obtained written consent from the majority of its shareholders for the transaction and the only material condition outstanding to complete the transaction is the closing of the concurrent financing. The Company is in the process of completing the financing and expects it will be completed before mid-November.

In anticipation of final approval from the TSX Venture Exchange for its change of business transaction, a new website has been developed and can be found at www.intrepidmetals.com.

About Tombstone South

The Tombstone South Property is located 5.6 kilometers southwest of the town of Tombstone, Cochise County, Arizona, USA. The Property is easily accessible via two hours of driving on paved highway from Tucson, Arizona. The Property is an exploration stage opportunity with potential to discover substantial, high-grade, silver/ lead/zinc veins and carbonate replacement deposits similar to those mined in the Tombstone District. The Tombstone mines produced 32 million ounces of silver in the 1880s.

The target concept on the Property, in addition to the Tombstone style silver mineralization in the Bisbee Group, will be to test the Cretaceous-Paleozoic contact. This stratigraphic horizon hosts the Taylor silver/lead/zinc deposit in southern Arizona, which was bought for US$1.3B in 2018 by South 32. The Cretaceous-Paleozoic contact zone on the Property, including its proximity to low grade porphyry copper deposits and high-grade silver deposits, presents a very favorable setting for Taylor deposit style mineralization.
